Applicant's Certification

- I understand that this application is not an offer of housing.
- I understand that a housing authority will make no more than one offer of an appropriate public housing unit. If I do not accept that offer, without good cause, my application will be removed from the waiting list for that program at that housing authority;
- If I reapply for that program at that housing authority, my application will not receive any priorities or preferences that were previously granted or requested on the prior application for a three year period.
- Based on this application, I understand I should not make plans to move or end my present tenancy until I have received a written Unit Offer from a housing authority.
- I understand that it is my responsibility to inform a Housing Authority in writing of any change of address, income, or household composition or any other information regarding my application.
- I authorize housing authorities where I have applied to make inquiries to verify the information I have provided in this application.
- I certify that the information I have given in this application is true and correct. I understand that any false statement or misrepresentation may result in the denial of my application.
- I understand that housing authorities I have applied to will request a Criminal Offender Record Information from the Criminal Justice Information Services and may perform credit checks and other background investigations for all adult members of the household.
- I understand that if I have made any intentionally false or misleading statements when applying for public housing, my application will be disqualified and there may be additional consequences.
- I understand that my application information will be transferred to the Common Housing Application for Massachusetts Public Housing (CHAMP)
- I understand that the online application may be subject to data transmission errors that may make the application incomplete. I understand that DHCD is not responsible for these errors.
- By using this application, I agree to all of these conditions.

Fair Information Practices Act - Statement of Rights

Local Housing Authorities collect information about applicants and tenants for their housing programs as required by law in order to determine eligibility, amount of rent, and correct apartment size. The information collected is used to manage the housing programs, to protect the public's financial interest, and to verify the accuracy of information submitted. Where permitted by law, it may be released to government agencies, other housing authorities, and to civil or criminal investigators and prosecutors. Otherwise, the information will be kept confidential and only used by housing authority staff in the course of their duties.

The Fair Information Practices Act established requirements governing housing authorities' use and disclosure of the information it collects. Applicants may give or withhold their permission when requested by the housing authority to provide information. However, failure to permit the housing authority to obtain the required information may result in delay or ineligibility for programs. The provision of false or incomplete information is a criminal offense, punishable by fines and/or imprisonment.

As an applicant, you have the following rights in regards to the information collected about you:

- No information may be used for any purpose other than those described above without your consent.
- No information may be disclosed to any person other than those described above without your consent. If we receive a legal order to release the information, we will notify you.
- You or your authorized representative have a right to inspect and copy any information collected about you.
- You may ask questions and receive answers from the housing authority about how we collect and use your information.
- You may object to the collection, maintenance, dissemination, use, accuracy, completeness, or type of information we hold about you. If you object, we will investigate your objection and will either correct the problem or make your objection part of the file. If you are dissatisfied, you may appeal to a local housing authority where you have applied and it will notify you in writing of its decision and of your right to appeal to the Department of Housing and Community Development.

I have read and understand this Fair Information Practices Statement of Rights.
